Re: US Patent Application No. 09/506802
Kejser et al.

As discussed this morning, attached is a further amended version of Claim 1. I believe this incorporates the issues we discussed. However, please review so that we might discuss.

Also, on review of the other claims, I noted some minor changes that are required in Claim 5, page 35, namely, (i) in part (a), insert -- data from -- after "isochronous", and (ii) in part (d) replace -- asynchronous -- with "isochronous". I believe these changes are fairly straightforward, but let me know if you have any comments.

Yours truly,

Gerald A. Gowan
